The Investor Responsibility Research Center, Inc. (IRRC) is the world's leading source of impartial, independent research on corporate governance, proxy voting and corporate responsibility issues. IRRC's mission is to provide the highest quality research on companies and shareholders worldwide.

- Founded in 1972, IRRC has more than 80 professional staff members. They provide research, software products and consulting services to over 500 subscribers and clients representing institutional investors, corporations, law firms and other organizations.
- IRRC offers guidance and advice on proxy voting so that their clients can make informed, considered decisions that reflect their investment philosophies. IRRC also offers company profile information for portfolio screening and other purposes.
- IRRC does not advocate on any side of the issues it covers. This fact assures that the information IRRC provides is objective and unbiased.
- The Governance set, also known as the IRRC Takeover Defense database, was an important element in the article: Gompers, Paul A., Andrew Metrick, and Joy L. Ishii, Corporate Governance and Equity Prices, The Quarterly Journal of Economics 118(1), February 2003.

To read more about the Investor Responsibility Research Center and their mission, see the IRRC web site.

Unless otherwise noted, all material is
Copyright 1994-2007: The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania
All rights reserved